

Curriculum Vitae: Karl Aiginger

Professor Dr Karl Aiginger is director of the Policy Crossover Center: Vienna – Europe (www.europaplattform.at). He also teaches at the Vienna University of Economics and Business and is an honorary professor at the University of Linz. He is founding editor of the "Journal of Industry, Competition and Trade (JICT)". He was director of the Austrian Institute of Economic Research (WIFO) from 2005 to 2016 and coordinator of the research project "New Dynamics for Europe: Reaping the Benefits of Socio-ecological Transition" - WWWforEurope (<http://Synthesis-Report-Part-I.foreurope.eu>).

Professor Aiginger was born in Vienna on October 23, 1948. He studied Economics at the University of Vienna and Purdue University in Indiana, USA. The chosen subject for his PhD was "How Firms Make Investment Decisions". He earned his habilitation in 1984 with his book "Production Theory and Uncertainty", published by Blackwell. His research foci are: European and national economic strategy and policy; Climate policy; Industrial organization and industrial policy; Competitiveness of industries, regions and nations; Deep crises - financial, Euro, Corona. He was also a visiting professor or teacher in the (MIT, Purdue University, Stanford University, UCLA, Hunan University).